

BETTY LOU DANIELSON

July 22, 1948 - February 7, 2026

Betty Lou Danielson (Veum) La Crescent, MN (formerly Caledonia, MN) passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 7, 2026, surrounded by family at Gundersen Hospital, La Crosse.

Betty is survived by her loving husband Jerry of 58 years, daughter Lori Lampert (Doug), sons Tony Danielson, and Scott (Sally) Danielson, 10 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren, whom she loved dearly.

Betty is preceded in death by her mother Sigrid Veum (Caledonia), mother-in-law Lillian Rudolph (Danielson), her brother Charlie Veum, a grandson Danny, as well as, many brothers and sisters in law.

Betty was born on July 22, 1948, and grew up in Black Hammer, MN before moving to Caledonia where she met and married her husband and life partner, on July 15, 1967. Together they resided in Caledonia until 2021, when they moved to La Crescent, MN. Before moving to La Crescent, she and Jerry were members for many years at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Caledonia, MN.

Betty worked for over 30 years at Caledonia Care and Rehab where she retired from. In her free time, she enjoyed spending time with family, gardening, playing bingo and listening to music. She especially enjoyed Molly

B and Vince Gill.

Betty was loved by many, especially her family and will be missed dearly. We know that God has called her home to heaven to live in peace eternally.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be at 11 am, Saturday, February 14, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Caledonia, MN. Visitation will be from 10-10:45 am Saturday before the service at St. Mary's Holy Family Hall. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, Caledonia.

“ I am sorry for your loss. She was a beautiful lady. Had plenty of laughs when we worked together at the nursing home in the kitchen back in the day. Last time I saw her and Jerry and family was last year in May at my nephews priest ordination. It was very nice to see them. My thoughts and my prayers are with you all. God bless you all always.
