“ Betty was good to (and for) Uncle Andy. As a high schooler she coached me and others to excel in Speech competitions. I know she taught numerous young persons to golf. Her dedication to teaching and to her church were remarkable.

“ Sympathies to the family. I always enjoyed visits with Betty and Andy at the golf course or their home, and even the occasional English tip. Helped me learn to become a (mostly) careful copyeditor!

“ Betty was my neighbor on East Grant Street. She was always so nice to the neighborhood kids! As an elementary librarian, Betty had a voice that would make books come alive for her students. I was fortunate to have Betty as a speech teacher in high school, and was privileged to be a waitress at her wedding. My sincerest condolences. Barb Roling Sundermeyer

“ I absolutely adored and loved Betty! In school we didn't get along so well but years later things changed. We got together and she helped me with some of my writings and together we helped Father Leif out at a weekday church service. She really was an amazing woman and a dear lady. I will never ever forget the kindness and love she showed me. I feel very blessed to have known her. Thank you, Lord Jesus for such an incredible teacher and friend.
