“ One of my first memories was with Dan in one of his tractors; I shouldn't probably have been able to remember anything at this age, but I do remember Dan giving me a ride in his tractor. Bouncing around in his lap as we went over the field I remember the conversation being about my big brother and him telling me about his big brothers (one being my grandpa Paul Gade Jr), and probably many many questions about his cows and tractors. That is the memory I will carry of Dan; happy doing what he loved and sharing it with a new generation.
