“ I will never forget my dear childhood friend, Marion. There are so many memories of our growing up together all the way through high school. I would go over and do homework at Marion's and then Leo would come over. Marion would usually hide behind the door and when Leo came to the door she'd scare the crap out of him. We had so many memories of things we did together. We would go to Grandma's grocery store and hope she would give us a little treat. Maybe we would get a penny candy!!! Then we thought it was so much fun to go out back to one of the sheds, climb up to the roof and jump off. Those kind of things were fun when we grew up. Or going sledding on the hill behind the school house. She lived right close to me and I spent a lot of time at their house. She made my childhood so special on through the high school years. I will love you forever Marion and will never forget you. Heaven has gained the most beautiful angel. My sympathy to Leo and all of the family. May God comfort you.

“Heaven got one hell of an Angel ! Larry remembers that Leo was the only member of Winona State’s wrestling team that was married; Marion was a wrestling wife, mother, and grandmother for at least 50 years ❤️

Joanne met Marion and Leo in 1988 at a WSU Hall of Fame/homecoming weekend. The four of us clicked. Since then we would take turns each summer either coming to Caledonia for a weekend, or them coming to Fond du Lac. Favorite memories were: taking boat rides on the Mississippi, going down to Lansing Iowa to that crammed packed variety store, having our dog Gia sit and lean against Marion and try to lick/face wash Marion’s face and only get her chin, staying with them in Gulf Shores, and campfires out in back of their home in Caledonia, fun times in Fond du Lac with boat rides on Lake Winnebago.

We saw Marion and Leo a few weeks before she passed. We talked, laughed, cried and we got to hug her and say “We love you Marion ❤️👍”. What a beautiful, caring, straight shooter, fun lady. You’ve touched so many lives; her legacy continues. We love the both of you and Leo, may fabulous memories keep you company and give you strength going forward. Larry and Joanne Marchionda “ Marion was my friend Susie's little sister. One day she came up to Susie (we were all in high school), and said; "Leo Simon asked me out on a date. Should I go?" Susie answered her; "Absolutely!!" I think they were sophomores. Anyway, that was the beginning of something beautiful. They were the cutest couple. God rest Marion's soul. Lee and I extend our deepest sympathy to Leo & the entire family.
