“ Wow, what a wonderful classy lady. She taught me and so many others how to care for patients with your whole heart. She should've been able to stay on this earth to continue her journey of love. But the Lord only takes the very best and seen how she was tired and time to come home. I will forever miss her and remember her always. Her family was blessed, my deepest sympathy to you all.

“ What an inspiration Marliss has been. Her strength and faith in the Lord was like no other. She showed all of us that she owned her cancer her cancer didn't own her by the way she lived right up to the end. She's now at peace and dancing to the best music ever. You make me smile Marliss. You will be missed.

I am so so sad to just now hear of Marlis leaving her earthly home..she was the epitome of class, huge heart and passion for giving...I love the way Jodi Ostern worded that Marlis owned her cancer, it didn't own her...God Bless you Marlis with life eternity. You are missed and loved

Thank you Ginny & everyone. Yes, my grandma Marliss gave her all to helping anyone in need. She was blessed to have all of you for friends, it brought her to tears knowing that all of you loved her so. My Grandma truly believed she was meant to be an inspiration during the time after her diagnoses. And boy was she! She lives on in our hearts & memories.

Always remember she loved ALL of you as much as you loved her!*

God Bless everyone of you.
