“ I will always remember Aunt Marvel as a stylish, proper lady. She had a certain grace and confidence that I admired. The last time I visited her at home we talked about the amazing African Violets growing in her window. I'm so sorry Cousins for your loss. You'd think it would be easier the older our parents get, but it never is. I'm praying for comfort and strength for you all and lifting up Aunt Marvel with joy in her arrival in heaven. Sending you all love and hugs.
