“ The Schwartzhoff's and the Hoscheit's grew up together. We were often together for Sunday dinners. Great food, sports, Euchre, and pie were always part of the day. As we grew older things changed but there was always Euchre. Bob, Earl and I often hung out at the Avalon. Bob introduced me to my wife Pat there. Bob was an usher at our wedding. Later when Bob had his transplant, we visited he and Karen at the Transplant House, and, of course, we played Euchre. After Bob and Karen moved to their new home we visited them there. One thing changed. They now bragged about their grand kids. But, of course, we played Euchre. Bob struggled through many adversities but always fought his way through with determination. He loved family, farming and his faith. We will miss him. Rest in peace.

Earl and Pat Schwartzhoff

P.S I suspect Bob and my brother Dale are getting together for a game of Euchre in heaven.

“ Last year at his granddaughters (Lindsey) wedding shower Bob drove up in his van and wheeled right in on his wheelchair. He always had a smile on his face.

RIP Bob, you will be remembered and missed❤️
