“ Thinking of you, Carol, & remembering all the good times you & Bob had with Mom/Jim. It was great you were able to spend a few winters together in AZ. I will always remember Bob’s good nature. Take care, Carol! I’m sure mom & Jim are keeping an eye on him...

“ Condolences, Carol and family. My Uncle Bob was such a gem. That smile on his face in the photo is exactly how I will always remember him, friendly and good-natured (even when he won the 10 cent bet off me over the Twins' final game of the 1967 season.). I always enjoyed seeing and visiting with Bob at family gatherings, at the golf course, or at the hardware store, maybe on a detour from Bissen Electric up to Haugstad's to get an ice cream cone. A Caledonia and family treasure.
