Virginia (Welscher) McManimon Dever passed on to her New Life on June 11, 2022. She was 94 years old. Born September 30, 1927, she was one of six children born to Nicholas and Mary (Klug) Welscher of rural Caledonia, Minnesota. Virginia worked as a typist for Social Services in Houston County and for many years was the bookkeeper at Caledonia Oil. Upon retirement, Virginia worked part-time at The Phyllis Shoppe, a local dress shop, a job she truly loved. First and foremost, Virginia was a wonderful Mother, Grandmother and Great-Grandmother. “ I want to extend my deepest sympathy to all of Aunt Jeanie's children. She was a remarkable warm caring lady. I have childhood memories of going to the McManimon farm for dinner. I will always remember the fun visits that Pat and I had with her over the years. I especially remember my son Tad coming home from college one day. He commented to me that a lady had said to him your picture is on my Mom's refrigerator. One of Aunt Jeanie's daughters had recognized him from a Christmas picture. Treasure your memories.

“ Virginia (Aunt Jeannie to me) certainly did extend her love to all her nieces and nephews. She had a kind, loving, presence in my life and shared encouragement. One bit of advice she gave I will share with you. "God will show you the way. You just have to do the footwork." She will be dearly missed!

To all of her family: May you be comforted by her lasting love and your happy memories of her. Love to you all. Alice Brown
